About the Volunteering New Plymouth Volunteer Recognition Awards

This awards evening is our (and your) opportunity to thank and recognise the individual and collective 'good' done in our community by volunteer effort.

Why Nominate Someone?

The aim of the Volunteering New Plymouth Recognition Awards is to highlight the volunteer effort that goes into helping not-for-profit / for purpose groups achieve their potential. It recognises individual and team achievement, while publicly acknowledging all voluntary effort. These awards are also an opportunity for all Community Organisations to publicly express their thanks to the volunteers.

All nominees receive a 'Certificate of Appreciation' to mark the occasion of their nomination for the award.

Who Can Be Nominated?

Any volunteer or volunteer team working for a not-for-profit / for purpose Organisation can be nominated. The awards are open to all volunteers in the New Plymouth District. Your Organisation does not have to be a member of Volunteering New Plymouth to make a nomination.

The Judging Process

The judges separately review and assess all entries and then discuss their assessments as a group. The criteria used by the judges closely follows the questions asked on the nomination form. An important aspect of ensuring your nomination has every chance at success is to make sure you complete each section thoroughly. Please provide all the information requested in detail.
