

Long Service Recognition Award 2020

Individual Nomination

~ LONG SERVICE AWARD ~

(15+ years of volunteering in the community)

Background

This special award was introduced in 2018 to mark Volunteering New Plymouth's 16th anniversary. It recognises and honours people who have been volunteering for 15 years or more in their community.

Nominees will be judged on their voluntary work within the nominating organisation, any other organisations that they have volunteered for during this time, and their impact on the wider community.

Criteria

- Nominees for this award must have been volunteering in the community for 15 years or more, but not necessarily for the same organisation.
- The organisation must have Not-for-Profit / For Purpose Charitable Status.
- A winner (individual or team) of a Volunteer Recognition Award within the past two years will not be eligible for nomination by the same organisation in the same category.
- An organisation may make a maximum of one nomination per category. Organisations with multiple branches can nominate in each category per branch.
- Nominations must be typed or clearly written. Please ensure you fill in all of the nomination form, as each section is allocated a points value.
- Inadequate or incomplete nominations will be returned.
- Any supporting material submitted will not be returned.
- Judging will be conducted solely by a committee nominated by Volunteering New Plymouth. The judges' decision will be final, with no correspondence entered into.
- Selected personnel from nominating organisations may be photographed for publicity purposes.
