

Kia ora e te whānau,

As I write this we are just back from a refreshing Easter break. We hope you managed to get in some R & R and enjoy the sunshine. We've had a flurry of new Showmakers lately, so please welcome the latest members of the ART whanau.....

New Show Alert! Where's Waru?

He's right here! Waru has a huge range of interests and intrigues, and he's not afraid to share. Tune in to Where's Waru? And meet the man himself. You'll learn what makes him tick, and you might find new intrigues and interests of your own!

Where's Waru? Fridays at 3pm (new show fortnightly). Also available on demand in all the usual places.

Herbal Wisdom

Martina Murray from Blue Petal Botanicals knows lots about herbs and gardens. Tune in to learn some great garden tips, hear about the brilliance of bees, and harvest from her bushels of herbal wisdom.

Herbal Wisdom, Tuesdays at 5pm (new show fortnightly). Also available on demand in all the usual places.

Welcome Phill Spear

If you've been into the station lately you may have met our new Community Liaison, Phill. Phill has stepped in to replace Mikaela as Community Liaison for the year, and can be seen out and about, promoting what we do and encouraging new people in to ART. Phill is originally from Tāmaki Makaurau, by way of Rotorua, and has a background in youth work and education. In his spare time, he's a coach and performer with Improv Taranaki, a group that creates improvised comedy. We're thoroughly enjoying working with Phill and we know you will too. Make sure you say hi next time you're in!

Voxpop

Voxpop is an app that was originally designed by RNZ for "man on the street" comments. It's since been adapted it to meet our needs, and now it can even be used to record whole shows.

Voxpop is also a game-changer for community notices. If your club, school, or other community group would like to advertise their services or an upcoming event, they can use Voxpop to record an ad from anywhere. All for no charge!

Please pass this on to anyone who might need it

Save the Date

With so many new shows and a new Community Liaison, it's high time we got together again! Come along to:-

Mike's Brewery, 186 Devon St East
Wed 1st May, 5pm – 7pm.

We'll put on some snacks, buy your own drinks. Partners and family members welcome. Come for the whole time, or just pop in when it suits.

Focus on: Kowi Corner

Mingkyung calls herself a "Kowi", short for "Korean Kiwi". She has recently qualified as a Korean teacher, so the focus of this show is on teaching the basics of the language, and also sharing local information for the Korean community. As a busy mum of 3, we think Mingkyung's pretty amazing to add Showmaker to her list of accomplishments!

Kowi Corner
Saturdays at 1pm

Milestones

Kowi Corner – well done Mingkyung for 20 episodes of this Korean language show!

Anne & Michelle – Celebrating 8 years at ART are Station Manager Anne Dawson, and Community Liaison Michelle Bent.

Both started in the same week, way back in 2016. The people, the technology, and even the location have changed over the years, but ART's kaupapa of caring and sharing remains strong!

Art for ARTspace

This month's artist is painter Korrena Kidd, with her exhibition "Connections". Korrena has always felt connected to te awa (rivers), and te moana (the sea). This series explores that connection, in bold colour.

Meet Korenna on Sugar Loafing Arts Cast, Sat 6th April at 11am, or anytime after that on demand.

That's all for this month.
Ma te wa,

Anne, Evie, Kris, Michelle, and Phill
