

Kia ora e te whānau,

We are so excited to share that our very own Mikaela Nyman has been awarded the prodigious Robbie Burns Fellowship for Otago University for 2024! This is a huge honour, and absolutely well-deserved.

Mikaela hosts Sugar Loafing Arts cast, manages the ARTspace, and is a talented poet, writer, print-maker and all round star. We will sorely miss Mikaela and all she brings to ART, and wish her the very best for next year.

New Show Alert

Welcome to our very latest Showmaker to take the plunge, Chris Herd. Chris presents his show Soul Food - Spiritual Nourishment from God's Word, live every Tuesday evening.

Chris is a veteran broadcaster, having produced a similar show for Australian audiences for many years. Soul Food is sponsored by New Plymouth Church of Christ, 96 Waimea St.

Soul Food, live on Tuesdays at 8pm, or anytime on demand

Our Intrepid Manager

We don't know how she'll manage the FOMO, but Anne's decided to drag herself away from ART for a whole month! On 25th October she's off to tour Northern India, home of her ancestors on her father's side. We'll miss her, but wish her all the best for an epic trip.

Art for ARTspace

Featuring now in the ARTspace is New Plymouth MenzShed, with their impressive range of wooden creations.

The MenzShed offers a place for blokes to share their skills while enjoying the camaraderie of other men. Pop in to start your Christmas shopping.

Listen to Mikaela's chat with Phil Taylor on Sugar Loafing Arts Cast, Saturdays at 11am, or anytime, on demand

There are some spaces available coming up in the ARTSpace, so spread the word to any emerging artist you may know!

Focus on:- The Law Lady

Presented by Angela Solomons
from Taranaki
Community Law,
The Law Lady
covers topical issues like voting in an election,
employment rights, how retirement villages work, access to justice, and everything in between. All in plain English.
Angela understands the law better than most, and her absolute superpower is explaining it to others. Check out the archives for a treasure-trove of legal information from 9 years of broadcasting!
The Law Lady, Thursdays at 10am, replayed at 6.30pm, and on demand anytime.

Te Korimako Visit

Taranaki is lucky to have a choice of local radio stations. Te Korimako is our iwi station and has been proudly broadcasting for 31 years. It was a treat for us to be so warmly welcomed into their whare.
Amazing team, amazing space, inspiring mahi....and great kai!

Tune in to Te Korimako on 94.8fm for radio in a mix of te reo Maori and English.

Shoutout to Our Supporters

We are so lucky to have the support of a great community here in Taranaki.
Shoutout to these phenomenal local companies, who help keep the wheels of ART running smoothly with their generous contributions:-

Peru Café, who amply provide us with lashing of delicious, organic, sustainablysourced Incafe coffee.

Primo, who provide ART with FREE broadband services. These guys are solutions-focussed, professional, community-driven, and extremely good humans.

Vinyl Countdown. Every week Kris Johnson comes back up the hill with a smile on his face and a bunch of new music, hand-picked by Mark. Kris auditions this on his Wednesday morning show, Kris's Picks, and the good stuff goes into our playlist.

Graphix, who take care of all our printing needs, for a great price. They were responsible for the photo-glass in the studios, and pretty much everything that makes us look good!

CAMA Conference

On Fri 3rd and Mon 6th November the station will be closed as the team head to our CAMA conference. Together with the other 12 Access stations nationwide, we form the Community Access Media Alliance. Each year one station hosts the conference, so we can all get together and share ideas, knowledge, plans, and maybe even a drink or two!
